

Theatre de Campagne (5)

By -

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 48 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)51706707 Subject: Medical records -- Law and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . ATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE Senator Gregg. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Medical privacy is an issue that affects every American, and yet prior to the passage of HIPAA in 1996, there was no Federal structure or law in place that would ensure that our medical information remains private. HHS has been working for several years to develop comprehensive rules that govern the use and disclosure of protected health information. This is no easy task, given the complexity and fragmentation of our health care system, including the fact that our private health care insurance system is employment-based and dependent upon a system of third party payers. I would like to commend the administration for proposing significant improvements to the rules. These changes provide important clarifications that will aid in implementation and compliance. Moreover, these changes will prevent the unnecessary and harmful disruption of a patients care that would have occurred under the existing rules, a very important point. Although the proposed rule would clarify or improve several different provisions, the most...

READ ONLINE
[8.26 MB]

Reviews

This ebook can be worthy of a read, and much better than other. I have read and i am certain that i am going to planning to go through again once again in the future. You may like just how the writer compose this book.

-- Mr. Grant Stanton PhD

A whole new eBook with an all new standpoint. It is actually rally fascinating through reading through time period. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to when you request me).

-- Claire Bartell