

Season Out of Time

By Timothy D Wise

Emporium Press, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 212 x 138 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A story of love, adventure, and time travel, Season Out of Time transports readers of all ages to that bittersweet time when childhood ends and adulthood begins. It is the story of 12-year-old Jim Koslow who loses his first love in a tragic accident in June of 1977. It is also the story of 32-year-old James Koslow who, twenty years later, is still haunted by his friend's death. When James discovers an artifact from scene of the accident and recognizes it as a CD ROM, technology from the future, his renewed determination to solve the mysteries surrounding Jaime's death ultimately leads him back through time to the week of the accident. With the help of a beloved teacher--a man long dead from his adult perspective-- James struggles through the issues of tampering with time. Will he be able to prevent Jaime's death or will he be forced to relive it? Could saving Jaime's life condemn her to a worse fate later on? Will James search for truth free him from the pain and guilt...
