Abernathy Brown, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Anyone who reads her will never forget her voice. - Biographile Mary MacLane (1881-1929) was the first of the modern media personalities: a pioneer in self-revelation, in defiance of established rules, in living on her own terms - and writing it in brilliant style. At age 19 she burst upon the world out of Butte, Montana with a journal of private thoughts and longings that incited national then international attention. In the books and newspaper articles that followed she evolved a completely new, individual voice decades ahead of its time. She influenced Gertrude Stein, inspired F. Scott Fitzgerald, and was hotly discussed by everyday people - and America s biggest writers. Yet despite sparking film, stage, and music projects today - and being endlessly quoted on the Internet - the writer behind the writing has remained unknown until now. HUMAN DAYS: A MARY MACLANE READER features the complete texts of all her books (with expurgated passages restored), her colorful newspaper articles (much never before reprinted), an intriguing 1902 interview, the first viewing ever of her striking personal letters, illuminating introductions to each era in her life, and comprehensive notes that open the door to her influences and the age she came from and impacted so profoundly. A foreword from actress Bojana Novakovic provides a contemporary artist s creative appreciation of the author s still-powerful effect upon readers. Mary Maclane comes off the page quivering with life. Moving. - London Times She reminds us of the power of personal narrative, honestly told. - The Atlantic In a pre-soundbite age she already knew how to draw blood in one direct sentence. - The Awl She had a short...
