

Take Charge of Your Nursing Career: Open the Door to Your Dreams

By Lois S Marshall

SIGMA Theta Tau International, Center for Nursing Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Do any of the following sound familiar? * I am a 24-year-old nurse and relatively new to the profession. I like my current job, but want to find out more about all of the options out there for me as I map out future steps in advancing my career. * I am a 36-year-old nurse and have a desire to further my education, but don't know what field of study is best for me or how to get started. * I am a 47-year-old nurse. After working three 12-hour late-night shifts each week for the majority of my career to accommodate the needs of my family, I suddenly find myself an empty-nester with a desire to see the world. * I am a 52-year-old nurse who is not quite ready to retire. However, I feel I have served my time at the bedside and would like to find other ways to stay involved in nursing. I have often thought about teaching. No matter where you are on your nursing career journey, there are...
