

Excelling with Data: Descriptive Statistics Using MS Excel

By Keith Resendes

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I have written this book with you in mind either as a student or an employee trying to gain more knowledge or refresh your skills. I have made the explanations as clear as possible for the ease of learning statistics and Excel. Encouragement has been provided throughout and I believe anyone can use this book even if you don t have much knowledge in either statistics or Excel. I have only explained the most popular techniques to which are used in the working fields or school courses. Such techniques include basic statistics, e.g. averages, standard deviations; pivot tables, histograms and data retrieval. There are far more explanations and in-depth discussion of statistics and Excel but have been omitted for the shortness of this book, as well as promoting only the most common topics. I hope you gain a lot out of this book and stay motivated to learn more. As a student, I have looked for the right book to help me with subjects that I had a difficult time understanding. Sometimes the resources I had been looking...
