Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Journal of Laryngology, Rhinology, Otolology, Vol. 34: A Record of the Current Literature Relating to the Throat, Nose, and Ear At the present time, however, there are strong indications visible of the rise of a new and energetic spirit in our countries, and we may look forward with hope and high confidence to our speciality sharing in the new life that is rising to flood all departments of national activity, and it is intended that the Journal of Laryngology will provide for all workers in our speciality a means of publicity at once easily accessible and popular. Easily accessible. Because we wish to emphasise the fact that we represent no particular school, or clique, or style, or opinion. These columns are open to all who have anything to say that may seem to them to be of value or of interest to their fellow-practitioners, and we call upon all such to lend a hand to make the Journal as broadly representative of British Oto-Laryngology as they can, in order to sustain and to enhance...
