Amendment No. 3 regulations, rules, contracts and other agreements, and (4) policies placing responsibilities on the audit organization for providing audit services. Government auditors generally have broad audit responsibilities that may extend to a level of government or a particular entity within a level of government. Given their broad area of audit responsibility, government auditors need to be especially careful in providing nonaudit services to the entity so that their independence is not impaired to fulfill their full range of audit responsibilities. Nongovernment audit organizations may provide audit and nonaudit services under contractual commitments to an entity (commonly referred to as consulting) and need to consider whether nonaudit services they have provided or are committed to provide have a significant or material affect on the subject matter of audits. 3. 25 Audit organizations may perform nonaudit services that do not violate the principles stated in paragraph 3. 21 only if the audit organization...
