Northfield Publishing,U.S., United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 188 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. 1984 was a big year for James (Jim) O Donnell. It was the year his delinquent father died. It was the year his salary was cut after achieving some heroic success for his firm. It was the year his 9-year-old son talked about killing himself. Commutes during which Arthur never preached to Jim or handed him a tract, but the two men just walked. Our conversations appear in no particular order, though they are linked by the common hope that men might learn, grow, discover, and desire the good life the really good life, that is.This is a story about the great good...
